Support your neighbors by visiting the market this week!

Many of us are reeling from the last few days of overwhelming fire activity. I have heard about so many of our friends and neighbors who have lost everything. Although I know it remains an ongoing struggle and the skies are thick with smoke, I would like to open the market in support of our vendors & community.

I hope you will join us.

If you've left the valley and still want to offer support, learn more at <http://www.cfncw.org>

Zucchini Races Canceled

After after much deliberation, we have decided to cancel the races this year. We will have our zucchini race FUN next year. Some of the business created some very fun race cars for our postponed races last week and I wanted to express our thanks for participating, and show off their skills.

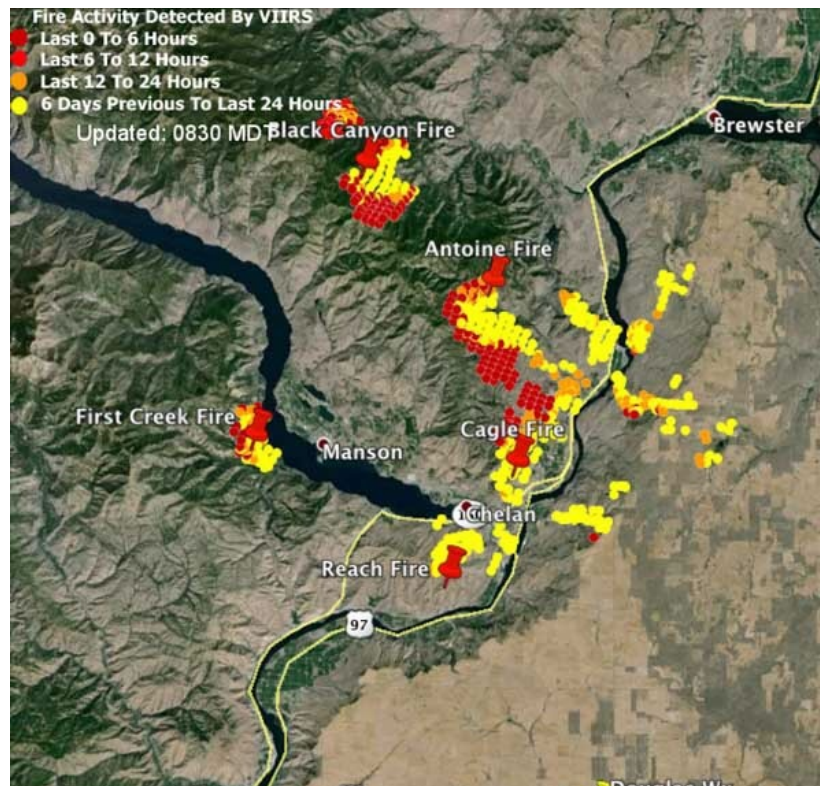

THANK YOU!

The Forecast for Market Day

Mostly sunny and hot, with a high near 89, west wind 5 to 7 mph becoming light and variable.

The market WILL BE OPEN to help support our vendors. Listen to KOZI at 8:45am to find out more.
